

LAT 310: Latin Prose Authors

LAT 310

Latin Prose Authors

(3 credits)

Class Size: 10-20

Faculty: Jeffrey Carnes, Associate Professor, Syracuse University

Administrative Contact: Kennia Delafe, Assistant Director, Project Advance

Course Catalog Description

Readings from selected authors. Review of grammar and syntax.

Course Overview

In this course, students will continue to develop their Latin skills as they read Catullus and other selected Roman authors chosen by the students. Students in LAT 310 also will read about the history of the late Republic and Early Empire. The course will cover the De Catilinae Coniuratione of Sallust and the Catilinarian Orations of Cicero. Selections from other prose authors will be introduced throughout the course for review, sight reading, and parallel purposes.

Pre- / Co-requisites

PREREQ: LAT 201

Course Objectives

N/A

Laboratory

N/A

Required Materials

N/A

Instructor Recommendations

N/A