About Sasha Pułaski

With experience in administration and higher education, Sasha supports the processes of concurrent enrollment to a wide range of non-matriculated students, faculty, administrators, and SUPA adjunct instructors. Her work was recognized in part with the 2023 Chancellor's Citation Award for Excellence for outstanding contributions to the student experience and university initiatives. In conjunction, she is a non-traditional student pursuing her a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies from Syracuse University College of Arts and Sciences, with a concentration in Sociology, Communications & Rhetorical Studies.

Outside her professional and academic career at Syracuse University, she is happiest when she is traveling, cooking, and running with her miniature dachshund, Winnie
